UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

In Re:

SAMIA EL-MOSLIMANY

Debtor.

Case No. 18-14820-CMA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON TRUSTEE'S MOTION
TO 1) APPROVE COMPROMISE AND SETTLEMENT; 2) AUTHORIZING LISTING OF PROPERTY FOR SALE; 3) TO EMPLOY REALTOR; OR ALTERNATIVELY, 4) TO COMPEL
TURNOVER OF PROPERTY OF THE ESTATE

I. NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Ronald G. Brown, the Chapter 7 Trustee ("Trustee") has filed a motion asking this Court to 1) approve compromise and settlement; 2) authorizing listing of property for sale; 3) to employ Realtor; or alternatively 4) to compel turnover of property of the estate (the "Trustee's Motion").

The hearing on the Trustee's Motion IS SET for hearing on Friday, April 30, 2021 at 9:30 a.m. The hearing will be conducted telephonically. The instructions to call in for the hearings are set forth at the end of this document.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2.1 Samia El-Moslimany filed a voluntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition on December 20, 2018 ("Petition Date"). Ronald G. Brown was appointed as the Chapter 7

1 Trustee the same day ("Trustee"). Among assets of the estate is real property located at 2 2655 SW 151st Place, Seattle, WA 98166 ("Property"). The Debtor owns a 50% interest in
3 the Property. As of the Petition Date, the Debtor's mother, Ann Paxton El-Moslimany,
4 owned the other 50% interest in the Property ("Ann El-Moslimany").

6 2.2 Ann El-Moslimany filed a voluntary chapter 7 bankruptcy petition on 7 December 20, 2020, case no. 20-13149. Nancy James was appointed as the Chapter 7
8 Trustee on the same date.

10 2.3 Ann El-Moslimany passed away on January 25, 2021.

11 2.4 The Property is owned one-half by the Samia El-Moslimany bankruptcy
12 estate and one-half by the Ann El-Moslimany bankruptcy estate.

13 2.5 Neither Ann El-Moslimany or Samia El-Moslimany have made a payment on 14 the mortgage for over two years. See Declaration of Denice Moewes, ¶3 ("Moewes 15 Declaration").

16
17 2.6 The first position deed of trust holder, Washington Federal Bank, is owed
18 $410,000.00, an increase of $60,000 from the Samia El-Moslimany Petition Date. Moewes
19 Declaration, Exhibit 1.

20
21 2.7 The second position trust holder, Aziza Al-Yousef, has two promissory notes
22 totaling $446,000 signed by Samia El-Moslimany. Neither of those promissory notes are 23 signed by Ann El-Moslimany. Moewes Declaration Exhibit 2 and 3.

24 2.8 Both Samia El-Moslimany and Ann El-Moslimany claimed a $125,000
25 homestead exemption.

26
27 2.9 Hayat Sindi has a recorded judgment against Ann El-Moslimany in the 28 amount of $354,575.00.

2.10 Hayat Sindi has a recorded judgment against Samia El-Moslimany in the amount of $1,550,298. Moewes Declaration, Exhibit 4.

2.11 The Trustee believes the Property is worth at least $1,300,000. However, given the lack of inventory in this current housing market, the Property could easily sell for more than $1,300,000. See Declaration of Rik Jones filed simultaneously herewith.

2.12 The Trustee also believes he could rent the Property for a monthly rental amount of $4,000 - $5,000. Jones Declaration, ¶6.

III. MOTION TO APPROVE COMPROMISE AND SETTLEMENT

3.1 The Trustee believes the Property has a value of at least $1,300,000. There is a first place deed of trust in favor of Washington Federal Savings with a balance due of approximately $410,000. There is a second deed of trust in favor of Aziza Yousef. Trustee Brown is challenging the validity of that deed of trust and seeks to set it aside for the benefit of the unsecured creditors of the estate. Trustee James will be joining in on that litigation. Since the Property is held by the two debtors as tenants in common and each is entitled to a $125,000 homestead in the Property. After the homestead exemption there is a judgment lien in favor of Sindi. Sindi has a judgment against both debtors, but for different amounts. According to the schedules, the debtor owes Sindi approximately $491,000. Samia El-Moslimany lists the debt to Sindi at $1,548,500. It is estimated that after payment of the costs of sale and the secured debt, setting aside the funds for the disputed debt and the two homestead exemptions, there will remain between $78,000 and $90,000 in proceeds to which the Sindi lien can attach.

3.2 The trustee and Sindi have entered into an agreement. Moewes Declaration, Exhibit 5. Under the terms of the agreement, the trustees will market and sell

1 the residence, pay the Washington Federal Savings claim, set aside the proceeds from the
2 Yousef deed of trust, pay the two exemption claims and split the net sale proceeds equally
3 between Sindi and the two trustees.

4 3.3 The debtors have not kept the mortgage payments on the Property current.
5 The Yousef litigation could take several more months to finalize. In the meantime, there is
6 a risk that the Property will be lost to foreclosure. Additionally, the sale proceeds will set
7 off some of the expenses incurred by the attorneys in litigating with Yousef.

9 WHEREFORE, the Trustee Brown prays for an order authorizing the agreement
10 between the two bankruptcy trustees and Hayat Sindi. A copy of the Settlement
11 Agreement is being sent with the notice to creditors.
12

13 IV. TRUSTEE'S MOTION FOR AUTHORITY TO LIST PROPERTY FOR SALE
14 AND EMPLOY REALTOR

15 4.1 The Trustee seeks authority to list the Property for sale. The parties and 16 various real estate agents can all proffer their opinion of the value of the Property.
17 However, the fair market value of the Property is what a willing buyer is to pay to a willing 18 seller. There is no substitute for the Property being listed for sale on the Multiple Listing
19 Service so value can be determined. If the Trustee receives an offer sufficient to pay the 20 liens<sup>1</sup> and the homestead, and return money to the estate, then the Trustee will note up 21 the offer for court approval.
22

23 4.2 There is nothing in 11 U.S. C. § 704 or in any other section of the Bankruptcy
24 Code, that requires that the trustee demonstrate in advance of sale that the market price
25 will exceed all costs and encumbrances.
26
27

28 <sup>1</sup> The funds to pay off the Al-Youssef lien would be held in escrow pending a determination of the 29 Adversary Proceeding

1 Little would be gained by prohibiting the trustee from attempting a sale in the 2 sound belief that there will be something left for the estate after the liens, sale
3 expenses and homestead exemption are covered. This is especially true because 4 the trustee is not bound to accept a bid that does not enable him to satisfy his obligations and may simply refuse to go through with a sale if none of the bids proves sufficiently advantageous.

5 In re Hyman, 967 F.2d 1316, 1320 (9th Cir. 1992).

6 4.3 Moreover, the second place deed of trust in favor of Aziza Al-Yousef is the 7 subject of an adversary proceeding. That interest is subject to a bona fide dispute and the 8 property can be sold pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(4). To approve a sale under that 9 statute, the Court does not need to decide the dispute. It only need to objectively
10 determine that one exists. In re Daufuskie Island Properties, LLC, 431 B.R. 626, 645-46
11 (Bkrtcy. D.S.C. 2010). In this instance there is a pending lawsuit to determine the validity
12 of the deed of trust. There is a bona fide dispute. The purpose of Section 363(f)(4) is to 13 permit the property of the estate to be sold so that liquidation need not be delayed while a 14 disputed interest is being litigated. In re Clark, 266 B.R. 163, 171 (9th Cir. BAP 2001). The 15 mounting debt to the to the first place deed of trust holder in this case is precisely the 16 situation Section 363(f)(4) is intended to address.

17 4.4 The Trustee desires to hire Rik Jones and RE/Max Northwest to sell real
18 property on behalf of the estate on a 6% commission basis, subject to Court approval after 19 notice and a hearing. A copy of the proposed listing agreement is attached hereto as an
20 exhibit.

21 4.5 Rik Jones and RE/Max Northwest have previously worked with the Trustee, 22 and Denice Moewes, the Attorney for Trustee, in other bankruptcy cases and it is 23 anticipated to continue.

1           4.6     The Trustee is aware of no connections between Rik Jones and/or RE/Max
2 Northwest, and the debtor, creditors, any party in interest, their respective attorneys and
3 accountants, the United States Trustee, or any person employed in the office of the United
4 States Trustee other than as set forth above.

5           4.7     The Trustee is not aware of any interest adverse to the estate held by Rik
6 Jones and RE/Max Northwest and believes them to be disinterested pursuant to 11 USC
7 §101(14).

9           4.8     No retainer has been paid or promised to Rik Jones and/or RE/Max
10 Northwest and all compensation is subject to a Court order after notice to creditors and a 11 hearing.
12

13           WHEREFORE, the Trustee applies to the Court for an order authorizing the 14 employment of Rik Jones and RE/Max Northwest and authority to list and sell property of 15 the estate as described in this application with all compensation subject to Court order
16 upon notice to creditors and a hearing.
17

18           V. MOTION TO COMPEL TURNOVER OF PROPERTY OF THE ESTATE

19           5.1     Section 542(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that an entity in possession,
20 custody or control of property that the trustee may use, sell or lease under section 363
21 shall deliver to the trustee the property unless such property is of inconsequential value
22 or benefit to the estate.
23

24           5.2     The Debtor has not made a mortgage payment in over two years. The 25 Trustee's real estate agent believes he can rent the Property for between $4,000 - $5,000
26 per month. See Jones Declaration. $4,000 - $5,000 per month is not of inconsequential
27 value or benefit to the estate. The rental income can be used to pay the monthly mortgage
28
29

1 payment and any expenses, thereby preventing the Debtors from eating away all the
2 equity in the Property.

3 WHEREFORE, the Trustee requests turnover of the property so that he may then
4 rent it Property, after entry of an operating order.

6 VI. MOTION TO EMPLOY REALTOR

7 6.1 The Trustee desires to hire Rik Jones and RE/Max Northwest to sell real
8 property on behalf of the estate on a 6% commission basis, subject to Court approval after 9 notice and a hearing. A copy of the proposed listing agreement is attached hereto as an
10 exhibit.
11

12 VII. OBJECTIONS

13 Your rights may be affected. You should read these papers carefully and discuss 14 them with your attorney, if you have one in this bankruptcy case. (If you do not have an 15 attorney, you may wish to consult one.)
16

17 If you do not want the court to approve the Trustee's Motion, or if you want the 18 court to consider your views on the Trustee's Motion, then on or before Friday, April 23,
19 2021, you, or your attorney must file your objection and serve a copy upon Denise
20 Moewes, Wood & Jones, P.S., 303 N. 67th Street, Seattle, WA 98103.
21

22 If you mail your response, objection or comment to the Court and counsel, you
23 must mail it early enough so that the court will receive it on or before the date stated
24 above.
25

26 If you or your attorneys do not take these steps, the Court may decide that you do
27 not oppose the Trustee's Motion and may enter an order granting the relief requested in 28 the Trustee's Motion.
29

Further information regarding the Trustee's Motion may be obtained by telephoning Denice E. Moewes, at (206) 623-4382.

Dated this 9th day of April, 2021.

AGREEMENT TO MARKET REAL PROPERTY

THIS AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is made effective the 30th day of April, 2021, by and between Ronald G. Brown (“Trustee Brown”), in his capacity as Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee for Samia El-Moslimany, Case No. 18-14820, filed in the Western District of Washington at Seattle; Nancy L. James (“Trustee James”), in her capacity as Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee for Ann Paxton El-Moslimany, Case No. 20-13149, filed in the Western District of Washington at Seattle; and creditor Hayat Sindi (“Creditor Sindi”). Creditor Sindi and the Trustees are sometimes referred to herein as “Party” or “Parties.”

RECITALS

- A. Samia El-Moslimany filed a Chapter bankruptcy petition on December 20, 2018, and Trustee Brown was appointed the Chapter 7 trustee.
- B. Included in the property of the Samia El-Moslimany bankruptcy estate is a 50 percent interest in the real property located at 2655 S.W. 151st Place, Burien, Washington 98166 (“the Property”).
- C. Ann Paxton El-Moslimany filed a Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition on December 29, 2020, and Trustee James was appointed the Chapter 7 trustee.
- D. Included in the property of the Ann Paxton El-Moslimany bankruptcy estate is the other 50 percent interest in the Property.

E. The interests of both bankruptcy estates are encumbered by a deed of trust in favor of Washington Federal Savings with an approximate balance of $410,000.

F. Next in time is a deed of trust in the face amount of $346,666 in favor of Aziza M. Yousef (“Yousef”) encumbering the interests of both estates.

G. Trustee Brown has filed Adversary No. 19-01116 against Yousef to set aside the deed of trust as, among other theories, a fraudulent conveyance. The lawsuit seeks to preserve the avoided Yousef deed of trust for the benefit of Trustee Brown’s estate.

H. Trustee James has the same cause of action.

I. Creditor Sindi has a subordinate judgment lien which encumbers the interest of both bankruptcy estates. Creditor Sindi has a judgment lien in the amount of approximately $1,550,298 against the Brown Trustee’s interest in the Property. Creditor Sindi has a judgment lien in the amount of approximately $354,000 against the James Trustee’s interest in the Property. Creditor Sindi is the largest unsecured creditor of the estates.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in this Agreement, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. The foregoing recitals are true and correct and are incorporated herein by this reference.

2. This Agreement is subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court in Case No. 18-14820 and Case No. 20-13149.

3. The Trustees shall employ a real estate agent to market the Property. The sale of the Property will be subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court in both cases.

4. It is anticipated that the sale proceeds shall be distributed as follows: First, those expenses normally incurred by a party selling real property including, but not limited to, realtor commissions, escrow fees, outstanding property taxes and any charges typically paid by the seller of real property in the Western District of Washington.

5. The next funds will be paid to Washington Federal Savings on its secured deed of trust.

6. The next funds, an amount sufficient to satisfy the Yousef obligation, will be retained by the Trustees pending the outcome of the adversary proceeding against Yousef.

7. Next, the statutory homestead of $125,000 will be paid each to Samia El-Moslimany and Ann Paxton Moslimany upon further order of the court.

8. The next creditor scheduled to receive funds will be Creditor Sindi on her two judgment liens. The remaining funds are expected to be less than the amount needed to satisfy Creditor Sindi's judgment.

9. The Parties have agreed that, upon the successful closing of the sale of the Property, the estates will receive 50 percent of the remaining sale proceeds after the deductions described in paragraphs 4 through 7 above. The distribution of those proceeds between the two estates will be subject to further order of the Court. The remaining sale proceeds will be paid to Creditor Sindi in partial satisfaction of her claims.

10. Each Party executing this Agreement represents that it is authorized to do so. Each person executing this Agreement on behalf of an entity represents that he or she is authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of said entity.

11. The Parties have read this Agreement, have had the benefit of counsel and freely and voluntarily enter into this Agreement.

12. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts and, once executed, shall constitute one agreement binding all Parties, notwithstanding that all Parties to this Agreement are not signatory to the original and same counterpart.

13. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington. Jurisdiction and exclusive venue shall be in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington.

14. Each Party to this Agreement hereby agrees to take any and all action necessary where appropriate to execute and discharge its responsibilities and obligations created pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement and to further effectuate and carry out the intents and purposes of this Agreement and the transaction contemplated hereby.
